RVLES MADE BY E. B. FOR Children to write by.

TO make cõmon ink, of wine take a quart,
Two ounces of gumme let that be a part,
Fiue ounces of gals, of copres take three,
Long ſtanding doth make it better to be:
If wine ye do want, raine water is beſt,
And then as much ſtuffe as aboue at the (leaſt:
If inke be too thicke put vineger in,
For water doth make the colour more dimme.

To make Inke in haſte.

In haſte for a ſhift, when ye haue great need,
Take wooll or woollen, to ſtand you in ſteed,
Which burnt in the fire, the powder beat ſmall,
With vineger or water make inke withall.

To keepe Inke long.

If inke ye deſire to keepe long in ſtore,
Put bay ſalt therein, and it will not hore.

To make ſpeciall blacke Inke.

If that common inke be not to your mind,
Some lampblacke thereto with gumme water grind:
Each painter can tell you how it ſhould be done,
The cleaner out of your pen it will runne,
The ſame to be put in horne or in lead,
No cotton at all: when long it hath ſtayd,
The bottome will thicke, put more common inke:
And it will be good, well ſtird, as I thinke.

To make ſtanch graine.

Make ſtanch graine with allume beaten full ſmall,
And twice as much roſin beaten withall:
With that in a faire clout knit very thin,
Rub paper or parchment before ye begin.

To chuſe your Quill.

Take quill of a gooſe, that is ſomewhat round,
The third or fourth in the wing to be found:
And if ſometime of thoſe ye do want,
Take pinion as next when rauens quill is ſcant,
And riue it iuſt in the backe as may be,
For ragged your ſlit elſe ſhall you ſee,
Amidſt the ſlip that runnes vp the quill:
Were it of gander ye do it not ſpill:
The feather ſhaue off, the quill do not pare,
The ſtronger in hand your pen ye may beare.

To make your Pen.

Make cliſt without teeth, your pen good and hard.
Thinner, and ſhorter, on right hand regard:
The cliſt ſomewhat long, the neb not too ſhort,
Then take it in hand in moſt comely ſort.

To hold your pen.

Your thom be on your pen as higheſt beſtow
The forefinger next, the middle below:
And holding it thus in moſt comely wiſe,
Your bodie vpright, ſtoupe not with your head:
Your breaſt from the boord, if that ye be wiſe,
Leſt that ye take hurt, when ye haue well fed.

To make a good Pen-knife.

Your pen-knife as ſtay in left hand let reſt,
The mettall too ſoft nor too hard is beſt:

Too ſharpe it may be, and ſo cut too faſt:
If it be too dull, a ſhrewd turne for haſte:
For whetſtone, hard touch that is very good,
Slate or ſhooe ſole is not ill but good.

How to ſit writing.

Your body vpright, ſtoupe not with your head:
Your breaſt from the brood, when you haue well fed:
Inke alwayes good ſtore on right hand to ſtand,
Browne paper for great haſte, or elſe boxe with ſand:
Dip pen, and ſhake pen, and touch pen for haire:
Waxe, quilles and pen knife ſee alwayes ye beare:
Who that his paper doth blurre or elſe blot,
Yeeldes me a ſlouen, it falles him by lot:
In learning full ſlow write at beginning,
For great is your loſſe and ſmall is your winning,
If at the firſt time an ill touch ye catch,
Vſe onely is cauſe of ſpeedie diſpatch.

How to write faire.

To write very faire, your pen let be new,
Diſh, daſh, long taile ſlie, falſe writing eſchew:
Neatly and cleanly your hand for to frame,
Strong ſtalked pen vſe, beſt of a rauen.
And comely to write, and giue a good grace,
Leaue betweene each word ſmall (a) letters ſpace,
That faire and ſeemly your hand may be read.
Keepe euen your letters at foote and at head,
With diſtance alike betweene letter and letter:
One out of others ſhewes much the better.

Scholler to learne, it may do you pleaſure,
To rule him two lines iuſt of a meaſure:
Thoſe two lines betweene to write very iuſt,
Not aboue or below write that he muſt:
The ſame to be done is beſt with blacke lead,
Which written betweene, is cleanſed with bread.
Your pen from your booke, but ſeldome remoue,
To follow ſtrange hand with drie pen firſt proue.
Many one writeth, the example lying by,
Whoſo on the ſame doth neuer caſt eye:
But he that will learne with ſpeed for to write,
To marke his example muſt haue his delight,
Letter and tittle to make as the ſame,
And ſo ſhall the ſcholler be voyd of all blame.

Neceſſarie things belonging to writing.

And one thing well marke, your ſelfe well to eaſe,
That none but beſt hands may alwayes beſt pleaſe:
Both farre off and neare for faire hands do ſeeke,
And them ſafe as gold, ſee that thou well keepe:
And neuer let reſt thy hand for to frame,
Vntill that thou write as faire as the ſame.
To writing belongs good things two or three:
As drawing and painting, and eke Geometrie,
The which I would wiſh each wight to obtaine:
But ſurely to ſome it were too great paine.
So fare you well, without booke well learne,
Theſe Rules I giue, which are as the ſterne,
To rule a good Scholler, which doth his mind bend,
To follow good counſell, and ſo I do end.

END.
